

Financial Assistance

Policy

Mentoring Artists for Women's Art is committed to helping women and non-binary artists or cultural workers who wish to engage in MAWA programming but face financial or other barriers.

Procedure

On a limited ad hoc basis, staff can waive registration fees to programs based on financial need. A written application is required. Staff assistance in completing this application is available.