Artist Rights and Responsibilities

Donated artwork will be sold by silent auction through the online platform auctria.com at the url charityauction.bid/mawa. MAWA will divide donated artwork into 3 lots each lasting approximately one month September – November 2021. MAWA will notify the artist as to which month their work will be auctioned by mid-August. The work will also be installed in MAWA's space and in person viewing will be available should COVID-19 restrictions allow. The starting bid is set by the donor. Proceeds from auctioned art will be donated to MAWA in accordance with the percentage chosen by the donor: 100%, 75% or 50%. We gratefully accept one work from each artist in all media. The donor will receive a tax receipt equal to the amount donated to MAWA from the sale of their artwork. If the donor opts to be paid a percentage of the sale, a cheque will be made out to them from MAWA. Both tax receipts and cheques will be mailed to the donor approximately one month from the date of the sale. Works can be shipped (at donor's expense) to: MAWA, 611 Main Street, Winnipeg MB R3B 1E1 Canada

Whether dropping off or shipping artwork, please ensure its arrival before July 16 at 4pm, 2021. We may not be able to include late artwork in the auction. Delivery of artworks to MAWA is the donor's responsibility. If work is unsold at the end of the auction, donors will be contacted by MAWA to arrange pick up. For out-of-town donors, MAWA will arrange shipping at the donor's expense.

MAWA assumes no responsibility for damage or loss to any items sent to or displayed at Over the Top. MAWA will photograph the work to display on the auction website and for promotional purposes. MAWA reserves the right not to include the work in the auction.
